GREEN JOINS AIRPORT ADVISORY BOARD

FORT MYERS, Fla. (Sept. 1, 2009) – Katherine (Kitty) Green has been appointed to the Lee County Port Authority Airports Special Management Committee by Lee County Port Commissioner Brian Bigelow. The committee serves as an advisory board to the Lee County Board of Port Commissioners, reviewing policy, administrative and management matters for Southwest Florida International Airport (RSW) and Page Field General Aviation Airport (FMY).

Green has held executive leadership positions at The Bonita Bay Group and WCI Communities. She has more than 20 years of knowledge and experience in community development, planning, business management, marketing and public relations. She received a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in business administration from the University of South Florida.

Green is a current board member of Habitat for Humanity of Lee County, the Horizon Council and the Southwest Florida Expressway Authority. She has also served on numerous other local boards including the Foundation for Lee County Public Schools and the Bonita Springs Chamber of Commerce. Gulfshore Life magazine recognized Green as one of the 2008 Men & Women of the Year.

Green currently resides in Fort Myers, Fla. For more information on the Lee County Port Authority, please visit www.flylcpa.com.
